Annalong – 16th April

Diocesan Curate: Robert Smyth

- ...and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free...
Please pray for Holy Week services which, over the five evenings, will take as their theme the five Reformation truths. For visiting preachers as they prepare, for publicity, for people to come and to understand why these truths are essential for faith today.
- ...My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness...
For a robust theology of suffering. Please pray for people as they endure the changing seasons of life which bring physical and emotional hardship or suffering. For perseverance, character and hope to the end, understanding that God promises never to leave or forsake us.
- ...How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching...? Pray for the continued faithfulness of all who preach and teach as we remember the command of 1 Peter 4: 11 that 'if anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God.' Pray that God's words, now written in the Bible, would be taught and heeded by all ages. For the Sunday by Sunday exposition of the Bible and that we would sit under its authority.
- ...since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy...."
For lives that are holy and pleasing to God. That we as a congregation would be salt and light in Annalong and seen as disciples who love one another, offering genuine hospitality and service.
