

Mount Merrion– 5 May

Rector: Adrian Green

- That our new Select Vestry settles quickly into its role and ensures that all God has blessed us with in Mount Merrion is used for the expansion of his Kingdom.
- That our current building work, when completed, will help us engage more with our local community.
- For our PAIS team as they work in our local primary and secondary schools and also for all students about to sit exams.
- For our planning group looking into our first overseas mission trip.

Church of Ireland General Synod – 12 May

Taking place 16-18 May in Derry/Londonderry

- We pray for the President of General Synod, the Most Revd Richard Clarke, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland, and for the House of Bishops.
- For the presence of the Holy Spirit in all the proceedings and that Synod members, clerical and lay, would be guided into wise decisions that are true to the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- We pray for the mission and unity of the Church of Ireland, that we would be a vibrant source of God's saving grace in this island of Ireland.
- For Synod staff as they work before, after and during the event.

Orangefield – 19 May

Rector: Ross Wilson

- Please pray for the group of young people and not so young people (!) who are being confirmed on Sunday May 26.
- St John's is committed to a project to upgrade the church building - please pray that God would provide the funds we need for this very necessary refurbishment.
- Please pray that God would deepen our worship and wonder together as we meet as a church family in large and small gatherings.

Sydenham – 26 May

Leader: Joe Turner

- We thank God for what he has done in Sydenham and is continuing to do. Pray for new ideas, plans and visions.
- For God's direction in bringing our broken community into our church and for us as we go out into our community.
- Addictions are a massive issue. Please pray for anointing as we start to tackle this with our new course in September.
- For families who have been bereaved and others who find themselves in difficult situations.
- Encouragement for our church family and the salvation of our friends and loved ones.
- Protection and equipping for those God is raising up in leadership.

Thank you for praying
